

August 19, 2005

To whom it may concern,

Last year I hired Above and Beyond Home Inspection to assess the damages to my residence. I was impressed with how polite they were. They also did an outstanding job at assessing the damages and explaining their findings and making suggestions to improve the energy saving and safety of the home. I believe they are experts in the field of home inspections and truly care. I would recommend them with upmost confidence.

Sincerely,
Manon Lessard